

Welcome, students!

EDUCATION WEDNESDAYS AT CHAUTAUQUA

Education Wednesdays offer current students, teachers and staff from Chautauqua County schools (K–12) a free gate pass (7 a.m.–midnight*). Bring your current school I.D. card to receive free entry to Chautauqua Institution's grounds including access to all events at the Amphitheater. Youth 12 and under also have free access EVERY DAY.

*On Aug. 21, complimentary gate pass is valid 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

GALLERY TOUR FOR YOUTH

11 a.m. • Fowler-Kellogg Art Center
Students in grades 4–12 are invited to learn about and explore Chautauqua's visual art galleries. Guided tours of the exhibits are available by appointment only. Chaperones must accompany those in grades 4–8. Contact youth@chq.org to reserve your space or with questions. Tours are limited to 15 students each week.

YOUNG READERS PROGRAM

12:30 p.m. • Locations vary
You're invited to participate in the CLSC Young Readers program. This program is open to youth ages 9–14, and reading the week's selected book is encouraged but not required to attend! Visit youngreaders.chq.org for the book list.

POETRY MAKERSPACE

Open daily • Hultquist Center
Flex your creative muscles and make a poem in the Poetry Makerspace featuring the Traveling Stanzas interactive exhibit, part of an exciting project with Kent State University's Wick Poetry Center. For hours and other information, visit poetrymakerspace.chq.org.

Wick Poetry Center
College of Arts and Sciences

GROUPS

If you would like to bring a group of students to Chautauqua this summer, let us help! Contact our Youth Activities Coordinator at youth@chq.org for more information.

$10 YOUTH OPERA TICKET

Bring the family to see Chautauqua Opera Company's Il Barbiere di Siviglia in Norton Hall on July 5, 8 or 25. The youth ticket is available with an accompanying purchase of at least one full-price adult ticket. Please call 716-357-6250 for details or visit opera.chq.org.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT SERIES

These performances appeal to family members of all ages providing fun, interactive entertainment ranging from music to mime, puppetry, dance and more!

FREE:

Ball in the House
June 25 at 5 & 7 p.m. | Smith Wilkes Hall

Chautauqua Theater Company: Young Playwrights!*
July 2 at 5 & 7 p.m. | Smith Wilkes Hall

Dan Zanes + Claudia Eliaza
July 9 at 5 & 7 p.m. | Smith Wilkes Hall

Chautauqua Opera's The Barber of Seville in California
July 16 at 5 & 7 p.m. | Smith Wilkes Hall

Havana Hop
July 30 at 5 & 7 p.m. | Smith Wilkes Hall

Chautauqua Regional Youth Ballet*
Aug. 13 at 6 p.m. | Elizabeth S. Lenna Hall

Free for all ages! Request a complimentary pass at the Main Gate Welcome Center that is valid for entry to the grounds one hour prior to curtain time to one hour after. Parking is $10 per vehicle.

*Sponsored by
DFT Communications,
Partners in Technology

REDUCED-PRICE:

Sing-a-Long-a Sound of Music
July 17 at 7:30 p.m. | Amphitheater

Jabali African Acrobats
July 24 at 7:30 p.m. | Amphitheater

Taikoza
Aug. 6 at 7:30 p.m. | Amphitheater

The Magic of Bill Blagg Live!*
Aug. 14 at 7:30 p.m. | Amphitheater

$25 ticket. Children 12 and under are always free. Pass valid for entry to the grounds from 4 p.m.–midnight. Parking is $10 per vehicle.

Education Wednesday free pass may be used by those who qualify.

For more information or to order tickets, call 716-357-6250 or visit chq.org

CHAUTAUQUA INSTITUTION • CHAUTAUQUA, NEW YORK

Welcome, teachers!

EDUCATION WEDNESDAYS AT CHAUTAUQUA

Education Wednesdays offer current students, teachers and staff from Chautauqua County schools (K–12) a free gate pass (7 a.m.–midnight*). Bring your current school I.D. card to receive free entry to Chautauqua Institution's grounds including access to all events at the Amphitheater. Retired teachers who show an I.D. for the Southern Chautauqua County Retired Teachers Association are also eligible to participate in Education Wednesdays thanks to a grant from the Lillian Brink Education Fund.

On Aug. 21, complimentary gate pass is valid 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.*

MORNING LECTURES 10:45 a.m. • Amphitheater

Ideas and opinions are exchanged in an open, challenging atmosphere, and Chautauqua's audiences have the opportunity to participate in Q-and-A sessions at the conclusion of the daily lectures.

Visit lectures.chq.org for weekly theme descriptions and the full lineup of speakers!

INTERFAITH LECTURES 2 p.m. • Hall of Philosophy

The Interfaith Lecture Series is designed to present issues that impact the lived experience of everyday life from theological, religious, spiritual, ethical and humanitarian perspectives.

ENTERTAINMENT Evening times vary • Amphitheater

Our evening entertainment events feature a dynamic mix of artists, musicians, entertainers and speakers, and attract crowds to our open-air Amphitheater.

Visit concerts.chq.org for the full lineup of entertainment!

SPECIAL STUDIES

Special Studies offers classes to youth and adults in subjects ranging from art, music, photography, culinary arts, religion and philosophy, to fitness, dance, history, literature and writing. Enjoy Chautauqua's unique learning experience and enrich your mind, body and spirit.

Visit classes.chq.org for more details, pricing and to register! (Or, apply to teach a Special Studies course next summer.)

On FREE Admission Sundays, enjoy:

- Beautiful beaches
- Chautauqua Bookstore open 7 a.m.–9 p.m.
- Waterfront recreation at the Sports Club (rent kayaks, canoes, paddleboats and motor boats; play free cornhole and other activities)
- Smith Memorial Library open 12–3 p.m.
- Denominational Houses worship at 9:30 a.m. Locations vary.
- Worship service in the Amp at 10:45 a.m.
- Youth open mic at the Poetry Makerspace at 12:15 p.m.
- Art galleries open 1–5 p.m.
- Performances in the Amp at 2:30 p.m.
- Author readings in the Hall of Philosophy at 3:30 p.m.
- Vespers in the Hall of Philosophy at 5 p.m.
- Massey Organ Tour in the Amp at 5 p.m.
- Sacred Song Service in the Amp at 8 p.m.

Free day pass (7 a.m.–10 p.m.)
Free parking (7 a.m.–2 p.m.)

GROUPS

If you would like to bring a group of students to Chautauqua this summer, let us help! Contact our Youth Activities Coordinator at youth@chq.org for more information.

SPECIAL OFFER FROM THE CHAUTAUQUA BOOKSTORE

Show your Chautauqua County school or employee I.D. at the bookstore to receive 10% off your entire purchase on Education Wednesdays at Chautauqua!

Limit one discount per customer, per visit. Cannot be combined with other coupons or offers.

For more information or to order tickets, call 716-357-6250 or visit chq.org

CHAUTAUQUA INSTITUTION • CHAUTAUQUA, NEW YORK